

2024-25 International Student Fees

Tuition & Fees	$17,612
(Includes:)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ACA Tuition • International Student Orientations and Support • Activity Fees (annual yearbook, fine arts, instrument rental, special events, athletic fees) • School-Sponsored Trips and Retreats • College Advisement • Administrative Fees • I-20 Preparation
Application Fee (nonrefundable)	$250
Host Family Stipend (10 months of homestay)	$10,000
TOTAL:	$27,862

Variable Expenses

Supplies/Technology Fee	$650
(Laptop is required. Student may provide and use personal, working laptop. If student does not have personal laptop, this $510 fee is required.)
School Lunch Program	$1,000
(Students may elect to pay for and take own lunch to school as an alternative to the ACA Flik lunch plan.)
Full coverage health insurance (for 11 months)	$1,450
(Students that have existing, adequate insurance coverage will not need to also pay for ACA insurance.)
Electives/AP and Dual Enrollment Course Fees	$500
(AP and Dual Enrollment Courses are optional. If student elects to pursue these courses, the student will incur the costs up to, but no more than, $500.
On-Site ELL (English Language Learner) Support and Tutoring	**
(ELL support is available on a need-only basis and is determined by ACA. Costs vary based on needs.)
Winterim Trips	**
(Winterim trip rates vary depending on what trips and classes are scheduled for the school year. These trips are optional to students for participation.)

Any International Student cancels after being accepted for enrollment or re-enrollment, a fee of $1,000 will be due for processing the I-20.

International Student Fees are annual fees and are due in full on June 1 (or immediately upon acceptance if after June 1). If a student's inappropriate behavior or low academic progress causes a student to be dismissed from our program, then no refund of tuition and fees is due. Only prorated homestay fees will be refunded, if applicable.